The City of La Habra is bedroom community with a population just over 65,000 residents. It is located in the very Northwest corner of Orange County. With no freeway access there is very little manufacturing in the city and the larger retailers have just recently begun to build here. La Habra Woman's Club was established in 1898 and has continued to be an asset of the community since.

Project Title: Jump In To Art Contest Hours 30 Donated $ 650 In Kind $150

In the past our club has done an art contest, but it has been several years. Due to our growing membership we really wanted to participate in a project with a lot of community support and participation. Boy, was an art contest the right decision. We connected with our neighbors the La Habra Art Association and asked if they would like to partner with us. They were just as enthusiastic as we were.

In June the committee began the planning. We came up with a flyer and application and submitted it to the School District for approval. Our contest was going to be open to all 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th graders. Almost 8,000 students. The school district also required us to translate the flyer into Spanish. One of our members did a great job. The flyer was approved. We delivered the 8,000 flyers just as kids were getting back into school in September. We had no idea what kind of participation we would get.

Our goal was to get 3 submissions per school. As we went to each school to collect the art, we were pleasantly surprised at the submissions. 15, 20...We couldn't believe it. We collected over 110 pieces of art.

The committee then reconvened to sort the art by grade. We made name tags for all of the art and the Art Associated mounted all of the art so it could be hung in their gallery during the month of October. The Art Association also had the art judged and the ribbons were hung.

On October 6th we held a community Art Opening and reception. We contacted each artist by telephone to remind them of the event. We were beyond amazed at how many showed up. The Superintendent even showed his support for the event. It was a packed house. We made certificates for all participants and gave ice cream gift cards as prizes to the winners. We have such a talented group of students.

This will definitely be an annual event!
