Project Title Women's Festival                      Hours 36                      Donated 0                      In Kind 0
 A bazaar of booths all dedicated to women by women and woman owned businesses. In the center of town the public listens to speeches, testimonials, talent, enjoys food truck fare, craft brews at the nearby museum and shops the booths and learns about the various organizations in Fullerton that empower and are run by women.

Project Title. Women's Leadership Forum                      Hours 150                      Donated 5,267                      In Kind 800
 WCOF has taken the reins in the last few years to continue this great event that acknowledges and celebrates women in our community - leaders in 5 or 6 different categories. It is inspiring to hear them speak and hear the back stories that brought them to this place and time. Originally, the creation of several women in the community, it has become a natural for WCOF to lead the event'. WCOF gets sponsors and pays for this free community event.
