The 15th Annual Women's Leadership Forum was held on November 13th, 2019 to honor and recognize local women leader's achievements in the Fullerton City community. This free event was held at the Community Center in beautiful downtown Fullerton. There were six women that were honored and given an award as leaders of excellence in 2019. The awards were for Public Service, Philanthropy, Business, Warrior Award, and two in Leadership. The selected women receive their awards because they go above and beyond their day to day

Job. The Woman's Club of Fullerton and women from the Fullerton City Council and Community partnered together to discuss choices for each of these categories. After many meetings and discussions we determined which incredible women should be selected. The WCOF's very own Ways and Means Chair received the prestigious award in Leadership Excellence! We are so thankful to have her as a Club member. There were 300 attendees of the Woman's Forum who were able to meet and greet local non-profit organizations, there was food donated by local restaurants and they each received a swag bag with items donated from local businesses that support local women-owned businesses that make our community a wonderful place to work and play. It was an incredible celebration to honor such amazing local women.

She owns her own studio and opened up her home for members to come and have their photo taken professionally, free of charge. These pictures are then added to our club yearbook. We are so very happy and fortunate to have such a talented and generous woman in our club.
