Project Title: Holiday Brunch & Fashion Show Hours 500 Donated $9,000 In-Kind $3,000

The WCOF hosted their 3rd Holiday Fashion Show and Luncheon event Saturday, November 2, 2019 to benefit our Charity of the Year, JOYA Scholars. JOYA Scholars was founded with the purpose of tutoring and mentoring children to encourage them to do well in school, finish high school, and continue on to college. The Fashion show was held at a Golf Club venue in Fullerton. Our brunch consisted of eggs, bacon, sausage, potatoes and much more, and also included a small dessert bar, all delicious!

Gigi Hill clothing company provided gorgeous clothes that are easy to wear, and travel easily, and do not wrinkle, perfect for the working woman. The Woman's Club of Fullerton chose women in leadership from our community who make a positive difference, to be the models. The models consisted of members of JOYA Scholars, the Community, Club members, and even our very own Orange District President! Each of our beautiful models walked the runway looking fantastic in their clothing and Jewelry choices. We also had two ARMY Staff Sergeants escorting our models up on to and off the runway. Many members and the La Habra Key Club members helped to set up the tables and set out all the 65 baskets for the silent auction and opportunity prizes. The room was beautiful and the fashion models loved their outfits. It was fun, festive, and a tremendous success! With the help of all members we sold 99 tickets for the show and we raised over $9000 for JOYA Scholars.

Project Title: Fashion Show Basket Party Hours 150 Donated $ 0 In- Kind $ 3,000

To prepare for our upcoming Fashion Show and Luncheon, one member opened her home again for our basket making party. Over 20 members set up an assembly line to sort numerous donated items, including assorted candles, clothing, trinkets, as well as some larger items including golf merchandise, movie tickets, a signed baseball by Angels Pitcher Andrew Heaney, a jail experience with the Fullerton Chief of Police and a I Heart intimate concert. We have such generous benefactors. Then the items are added to a basket, then they are shrink wrapped and then a beautiful handmade bow is added. These baskets are then entered in the computer and priced for our Fashion Show event. These baskets make up our silent auction table and raffle prize table, and will help raise money for JOYA Scholars Organization

Project Title: Bunco Boogie Brunch Hours 265 Donation $ 4,500 In- Kind $ 1,750

Our Bunco Boogie Brunch fundraiser on May 11, 2019 brought out many members, family, and friends to play a fast-paced Bunco event. This fundraiser was for JOYA Scholars, an organization that mentors and tutors children from primarily Hispanic neighborhoods in Fullerton. Joya Scholars celebrated their 10th Anniversary this year. We had a variety of delicious foods donated by local businesses, such as lasagna, bacon-macaroni and cheese. Breakfast casseroles and hash browns made by members, as well as some delicious desserts, including delicious sweet strawberries and mini cupcakes. We had many items donated to make up our 30 silent auction baskets as well as 30 opportunity prizes. We received movie tickets, gift cards to restaurants and amusement parks, museums and a Doggy Day Spa certificate. There was lots of yelling and cheering as everyone tried to be a winner. Our Master of Ceremonies kept a steady banter throughout the event, keeping attendees laughing. She played lively disco music which was enjoyed by all. Many members of the community came out to. Enjoy a wonderful afternoon playing Bunco, enjoying great food, and helping to raise over $4,500 for this amazing charity.

Project Title: Bunco Boogie Basket Party Hours: 110 Donated: $ 0 In-Kind $ 1,700

On May 2, 2019 The Woman's Club of Fullerton met at a member's home to have our annual Bunco Boogie basket party. Twenty three eager Club women gathered to create baskets for the fund raiser. Members helped make over 60 baskets with items donated by local businesses and members. Items donated included restaurant gift cards, spa certificates, and candles and other items. We made these baskets for our silent auction for our Bunco Boogie fundraiser which helped to raise over $4,500 for our Charity of the Year, Joya Scholars.

Project Title: Quartermania Fundraiser Hours 50 Donated $ 0 In-Kind $ 500

On August 4th, The Woman's Club held one of their annual Quartermania events at a local restaurant. The event had 12 vendors who displayed and sold their merchandise such as candles, glass blocks, succulents, jewelry, and many more items. We sold opportunity tickets for baskets. We raised $6,000 total for the two Quartermania events. Quartermania is a very fun and interactive game consisting of a paddle, a chip and quarters. Items that vendors are auctioning off can range from 1 quarter to 4 quarters. This is a very fast paced game and guests walk out with lots of great gifts. Money raised during this event was used for our club's Holiday Party as well as small events throughout the year.

Project Title: Chili's Fundraiser Hours 50 Donation $ 0 In-Kind $ 0

The Woman's Club of Fullerton gathered at the Chili's Restaurant for a fun evening of socializing and eating, to raise money to mail cards to an overseas Army Base. The checks are added up and a percentage of the total is given back to the Club. This is a great social evening as well as a small fundraiser. The funds raised during this night were $160, enough for us to pay for mailing all the cards we have collected. We had so much fun eating, laughing and most of all being together, we are a true sisterhood.

Project Title: Party Favor Night Hours 40 Donation $ 0 In-Kind $ 50

To prepare for the upcoming fundraiser, our Holiday Brunch & Fashion Show, 2 members gathered at a member's home to make party favors for the attendees. We had a fun night making boxes, adding candy, making and tying bows. Club business cards were also attached so guests could find us after the event is over. We also enjoyed a light dinner to round out this fun social event. The favors were placed at each guests' plate for them to enjoy.
