ARTS & CULTURE

The Ebell Club of Anaheim was founded by several Anaheim ladies who met on November 23, 1907 to "better educate themselves in the finer cultures of life." Celebrating its 115th year, the Club owes its organization and inspiration to Dr. Adrian Ebell, a young man whose mission was the need of women everywhere to have opportunities for advanced education and to promote culture. Located in the heart of Anaheim, the Ebell Club of Anaheim supports many projects, large and small, with donations from members at our monthly meetings, to our "Jalora's Piggies" piggy banks, and fundraisers. We continually donate goods to and support other local organizations and our members are at work on a regular basis, improving life in the community and providing financial support and in-kind donations.

Project Title: Anaheim High School Arts Scholarships Hours 40 Donated $ 6,000 In Kind $ 0

Again this year, the Ebell Club of Anaheim raised $6,000 through donations, "Grab & Go" sales, and a fundraiser featuring internationally known Paraguayan harpist, Alfredo Ortiz in order to give a $1,000 scholarship each to six deserving high school seniors pursuing the arts in college. The deserving students in June 2022 were Aspen Duong, song and dance; Melonie Juarez majoring in arts and design at Ringling College; Antonio Martinez Fragozo planning to be a music teacher; Merlene Gomez, an animator and cartoonist going to Fullerton College; Andrea Perez Mendoz who teaches indigenous dance; and Beneliz Sanchez, a folkloric dancer.
