The Woman's Club of Fullerton is an organization full of pride and history. We are extremely proud of the fact that we have been in operation for 120 years since November of 1902. Our mission is dedicated to uniting women of all ages for community service, supporting charitable organizations, fostering friendships and empowering women through learning about the community around us. The Woman's Club of Fullerton resides in a city of 143,617 community members.

Project Title Holiday Cheer Fullerton Museum Hours 60 Donated In-Kind

The WCOF volunteered at the Holiday Cheer event hosted by the Fullerton Museum, seven members volunteered for the fun-filled event. Our members passed out hot cocoa and cookies to the community while we listened to a local band name Darden, the group performed for about 45 minutes. Our members also helped sign up families for a special bike raffle, a local community member donated fifteen bikes to raffle off at the event. The Fullerton Museum set up chairs and opened the beer garden for us to enjoy. Many community members came out in their Christmas sweaters and attire and joined in on the fun. The Fullerton community really brought some great Holiday cheer, the event was surely joyful.

Project Title Day of Music Hours 50 Donated In-Kind

The Fullerton community loves Music! And on June 21st we helped welcomed back "The day of Music" celebration, a free community event held at the Downtown Fullerton Plaza. Ten members of WCOF volunteered to help work the information booth and check in our talented musical artists. The event had been on hold for two years due to COVID-19, and finally had its chance to return. The music began at 3 pm and continued until 9 pm. Festivities included the beer and wine garden, food trucks, and vendor booths. The music lineup included some Fullerton homegrown bands such as Darden and Stacey Q. The event brought many friends and family out to celebrate Fullerton's musical heritage. Members of the community joined in on the fun by shopping, enjoying great food, and most importantly dancing the night away.

Project Title Donation of Quinceanera dresses Hour 8 Donated $750 In-Kind $2,000

Members of the Woman’s Club of Fullerton collected dresses for young girls to help with PROM and Quinceanera. Quinceañera, (Spanish: “15 years [feminine form]”) also called quinceaños or quince años or simply quince is the celebration of a girl’s 15th birthday, marking her passage from girlhood to womanhood. We feel that all girls deserve to be celebrated and dress up and feel special, so the members helped the YWCA collect dresses to support its 7th annual Quinceanera party. The WCOF collected forty-three dresses, nine fancy shoes, and $750.00 for the YWCA. The YWCA picked twenty-four girls to sponsor and organized a quinceanera party for all the girls and their families. The girls were provided with dresses, hair, make-up, dance lessons, and much more. The dresses will also be used for PROM. For many of the young girls PROM and quinceanera dresses are difficult to afford, but the YWCA gives the young girls a chance to enjoy their birthdays and celebrate their youth.

Project Title 8th Annual Quinceanera Party Hour 6 Donated In-Kind

The Muckenthaler Cultural Center hosted a quinceanera event for twenty-four girls, two club members attended the event to honor the girls and their families at the Quince party. The Muthanacker Cultural Center donated the venue which was beautifully decorated and included a catered dinner donated by Colette’s Catering & Events. We enjoyed dinner, yummy desserts, and a choreographed dance by all the girls. Everyone in attendance enjoyed the beautifully decorated venue, all of the girls had their hair and make-up done and each one had their own quinceanera crown. The event was very special to the girls and their families and we were glad to see so many of them enjoy a special day just for them.

Project Title Trying to be normal is driving me crazy Hour 12 Donated In-Kind

Four members of the WCOF attended a show supporting the First Congregational Church of Long Beach on August 20th,2022. The show was a performance on mental illness and is a way to bring light to mental illness, the show was brought to life with acting, music, and some light comedy. The star of the show was Keith Addison who is an advocate for survivors and a member of the Bureau of RAINN.ORG (Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network).

Project Title Fullerton Museum Hour 10 Donated $2,800 In-Kind

The WCOF donated art supplies, sketchbooks, pens, and Zines (pronounced ZEENES) books for the after-school program for children and young adults. The Club also presented a check for water and snacks to be provided for the program. In total, the Fullerton Museum received $2,800 for the one hundred youth members in this wonderful program.

Project Title Taste of Placentia Hour 16 Donated $0 In-Kind $0

The Taste of Placentia was held on August 11th, 2022 at Tri-City Park, and four members of the WCOF volunteered for the check-in booth. Fun times were had by all at the annual Taste of Placentia event. We enjoyed live music, a beer & wine garden, great food, and shopping vendors, all in a beautiful park lakeside setting.

Project Title Pageant of the Masters Hours 90 Donated In-Kind $660.00

Our members enjoyed a night out on the town with dinner and a show. The Pageant of the Masters 2022 summer show, a kaleidoscope of international art becomes your passport to distant lands, cultural celebrations, and fascinating history in the theatrical live production of Wonderful World. The coordinated members-only event was a night to remember in Laguna Beach, CA. Twelve members of the WCOF joined in on the fun and had a fabulous dinner in Laguna Beach where the view was breathtaking after dinner the members enjoyed the showing of the Pageant of the Masters. The art pieces and artist showcase were spectacular and the evening was a night to remember.

Project Title Wicked a Broadway musical Hours 50 Donated $0 In-Kind $0

One of our members coordinated a special outing for ten members to attend the showing of WICKED at the Segerstrom Center for the Arts. The outing took place on a Thursday and members were able to enjoy an award-winning musical. The cost of the tickets per member (member paid) was $55.00. The women had a blast at this magnificent Broadway musical.
