La Habra, A Caring Community, is a city of just over 65,000 population in the very northwest corner of Orange County., The city, with no freeway access, has little manufacturing and relies on retail businesses and housing for financial support.

Project Title: Meetings Hours 32 Donated $ -0- In Kind -0-

La Habra Woman's Club meets year-round, 2nd Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm, with July and December being social meetings. During the pandemic we Zoomed our meetings. We are now meeting in person but have continued to Zoom also so that those members living out of the area can continue to meet with us.

Project Title: Club T Shirts Hours 20 Donated -0- In Kind -0-

It was thought that our club T Shirt needed updating. This chairman shopped and priced shirts available. The majority of members did order new shirts each paying for their own

Project Title: Membership Recognition Hours 8 Donated $ 50.00 In Kind -0-

La Habra Woman's Club annually recognizes members reaching membership milestones. This is usually done at one of our larger fundraising events. This year we had two members reach 50 years, each receiving a pin and certificate from GFWC.

Project Title: Club Social Events Hours 500 Donated -0- In Kind -0-

Our club has two sections, Book Club and Wine & Dine, where members are encouraged to invite guests. We've also held two very popular wreath making classes that guests were invited to attend.
